DETAILED ACTION

1. This communication is in response to amendment filed 12/19/05.

Response to Amendment

2. Claims 1-30 and 32-80 are pending and have been allowed.

Reasons for Allowance

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The claimed inventions pertain to method and apparatus of creating and communicating notes concerning an auction participant or item within a network-based auction facility.

The following prior art references have been deemed most relevant to the allowed claim(s):

Barzilai et al. (US 6,012,045) teaches a computer-based method of selling consumer products and consumer services, which maintains the electronic bid, auction and sales records, and a plurality of customer computers interconnected with the computer system via a telecommunications link.

Knight (US 6,515, 681) teaches an intelligent data collection/presentation interface for use with an online electronic message board. The invention is especially suited for searching, reviewing and analyzing various forms of discussion group content posted on the Internet and other online networks.

Art Unit: 3624

Barzilai and Knight as discussed above as the Closest Prior art of record fail to teach or suggest, singly or in combination a method or apparatus of creating and communicating notes concerning an auction as indicated in claims 1-30 and 32-80. In particular, the following features are deemed novel rendering the claims allowable over the prior art of record.

generating an administrative note, which includes the administrative information related to the monitoring of the network-based auction facility and associating the administrative note with administrator aspect of the on-line auction. (claims 1- 14, 26, 27-30, 32-40, and 52-80).

generating (creating) an administrative note via a note creation function, which generates an administrative note including administrative information concerning a user of the network-based auction facility and the note creation function associates the administrative note with the user (claims 15-25, 41-50).

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
